

Miss Hawthorne, CIA Secretary

CPYRGHT

Miss Marian T. Hawthorne, 43, a secretary at the Central Intelligence Agency for 14 years, died Friday in Georgetown University Hospital after a brief illness.

A native of Philadelphia, she came to Washington in 1944 after working for the Army Quartermaster Corps there. She lived at 1010 Twenty-fifth street N.W.

Until she joined CIA in 1948, Miss Hawthorne worked as a secretary for the War Assets Administration.

She was a member of the Sodality of St. Stephen's Church and recently served as a volunteer worker for St. Elizabeths Hospital.

Miss Hawthorne leaves her mother, Mrs. John Hawthorne, and a brother, James, both of Philadelphia, and two sisters, Mrs. Carleton Thomas and Mrs. Edward Weigan, both of California.

A Requiem Mass and burial will be in Philadelphia.
